

The First Last Card of the Decade!

Grandchildren notes:

- Dan's back in college in AZ.
- Andrew is on the Dean's List.
- Connor is at Kent State.
- Austin joins Air Force (6-2011).

What does First Last Card mean?

Ruth and Glenn sent many of you a Christmas Card in July 2001, proclaiming it the first card you would be receiving in the new millennium. And now, we are sending you

first last Christmas card you will receive in this decade. This may not seem like a lot to you but it sure does to us...how often have you ever been first in a millennium or a decade. Just think...you can now say, "I know those folks!!"

Ruth and I hope you have a great Holiday Season and a super New Year. It is never too early to start your shopping for our gifts. Orville and Wilbur still run the house.

Don't forget:

Ruth's email is:

A bushel of ear corn weighs more than a bushel of shelled corn.

We hope you each have a wonderful Christmas and great 2011!

Ruth and Glenn still in Love!

On June 9, 2010, we celebrated our fifty-third anniversary. We won't re-count the entire 53 years, but in summary, they have been good! Jeff (Sally), Jay and Jill are happy. Jeff sold his business, Jay is doing his best ever and Jill is hoping to go to nursing school in 2011. Ruth and I have been retired for 14 years and still enjoy a happy and productive life. We love our friends!
